

Waiting for the World to fall.....

if you see the sun goes down,...

Von Tanja-chan

If you see the sun goes down,
and find yourself in darkness, waiting to the world to fall, for the shadows rising dark, for the end that comes at last, feel the cold thats coming up, crushing the hope that has remained, see the faint of all that was,
the darkness that will stay, but you will find a glimpse of light ,
far beyond the dark abyss,
far beyond all what is now, beyond the fear,
beyond the pain,
this remember,
dont give up,
see the light,
the brightness all around, the happiness that lies,
far beyond the dark abyss,
that you can reach,
if you just want,
if you go on,
not looking back,
shake off the fear,
and all the pain,
the sadness lying in your heart, go on,
stepp into the light,
come,
get closer,
they are all waiting.....
