Epilog: What is life?

Wise ones ask
What is life?

What is life
It's like a broken reason
I don't care anymore
And nobody cares about me

When I turn around
I see death
There once was a blooming land
Full of glory and beauty

What is life
It's like the kindest heart
I wish for myself
Alone and unheard

I dream of loving ones
United forever
Maybe I'm never meant to be
One of them, faithless

What is life
It's a treasured dream
Of beliefs
In a world that lost hope

Never again will the morning
Break the night by the dawn
Blinded in soul and mind
People stare but cannot see

Tell me now

What is life?
Maybe I found an answer
Spoken breathless
Under pressure of dreaded fear

We live our life
In a dead world
Meaningless even this
Life is a Dystopia
