Kapitel 2: My Mask

My Mask

*I see the hate in your eyes
And it hurts me
Put the mask on
My feelings are hidden
I am cold as ice*

*Look into my eyes
Look into your eyes
For a moment the feeling
That you would understand
-Only for a moment-
Then it's flown away*

*Everytime we talk
I get the feeling that
My heart's breaking in pieces
But I have my mask still on
This mask that's slowly killing me*

*Look into my eyes
Look into your eyes
For a moment the feeling
That you would understand
-Only for a moment-
Then it's flown away*

*Hope you will see
One day
All my pain
My personal nightmare*

*Hope you will realize one day
My mask and put it all away
And that you can see*

Myself behind

*Hope we will be one day
-Far away I think-
Something like friends
-Before my mask kills me-
Before I die of myself
-Before my mask kills me-*
